CUTTING REED'S CITY

REED CARRIED ST. LOUIS BY

Sacks Has Plurality in St. Louis of 36,000; Feeling That Long Will Win Developing.

A message from the St. Louis Post. Dispatch just before this edition of the Ledger went to press is to the effect that reports from the country in Missouri are materially decreasing Senator Reed's lead due to the metropolitan votes and that the general impression is that Mr. Long will likely be the winner. The vote is so close nothing definite will be known until the final count, Reed carried St. Louis by 26,000 plurality and Sacks, republican senatorial candidate, has 36,000 pluralality there.

LATER REPORT:-Reed's lead is now reported cut down to 8,000.

race Long carried the county but the four wards of Mexico there were spir-In the Monroe County Senatorial exact majority could not be learned. In Callaway county Long defeated Reed by 1100 votes.

Returns from the state are coming in slowly. Brewster sems to have won the Republican nomination for Senator. In the Democratic Senatorial fight the race is one of the closes in years. Reed received good major ities in St. Louis and Kansas City which have been cut down by the Long majorities in the country.
